ARG_O_1

This outcome aims to Promote and give technical assistance to UN Agencies, Funds and Programmes for the implementation of recommendations of the UNCT Gender Score Card Argentina (UN-SWAP).

ARG_O_2

The office staff is composed by a finance associate, a programme coordinator, three Programme coordinators with their respective assistants (Spotlight, OWLA; Win-Win), a communication focal point (UNW), a driver and a consultant responsible for activities under the Women, Peace and Security area. The office will recruit a Programme Coordinator and assistant for the new MPTF programme on Care and a Coordinator and assistant for the UNW-ILO JP on Care policies and financial packages. It shall be noted that the only core or IB position in Argentina is the CR, while all other staff are funded by non core resources.

ARG_O_3

To ensure the quality of programme implementation, staff will implement a personalized development and training plan, including the UNW mandatory package, RBM and M&E. In addition, UN Women will continue to participate in the KM and M&E working groups and carry out activities to promote staff wellbeing and an healthy work environment.

ARG_O_4

UN Women is working in the development of a RM strategy to ensure continuity and diversification of non-core resources beyond 2021. Among prospective funding, an Agreement with UNOPS is being drafted, and donors from private and third sector are being contacted. To strengthen UN Women's work in the country, a 2021 communications plan will be implemented, including activities to carry out the Unite Campaign and activities to strengthen UNW image in the media. Communications is currently carried out by a UNV, funded by the Argentine Government. Under this output cluster, the office will also support implementation of the 2021 work plan of the UNW Civil Society Advisory Group in Argentina, which was created in 2020.
