KGZ_D_1.1	The CO will contribute to the SP impact area 2 through the implementation of the set of program interventions under the SN Outcome 1/UNSDCF Outcome 2 . Within this SN Outcome, the CO will work in close partnership with an Institute which is a high-level body responsible for policy-making on economic development. The process of dialogues between the CO and the Institute, key state and private stakeholders has led to the collective decision to rollout the long-term	XM-DAC-41146-KGZ_D_1.1	$0.00	$0.00 thinking strategy with gender economy concept as part of the overall wellbeing concept of the country. The concept of gender economy is strategized by leveraging the potential which exists in green, creative, and digital economies based on the recognition of gender equality as an engine and accelerator for transformative results in overall development process.

KGZ_D_2.1	Under the SN Outcome 2/UNSDCF Outcome 4, the CO will focus on SP Impact Area 1. However, the CO will also contribute to SP Impact Areas 3 and 4 through its interventions planned within this outcome. As distinctive requirements for achieving this outcome, the CO emphasizes the need to work towards the promotion of women leadership and participation in decisions-making at all levels (Women in Leadership), ensuring women voice and solution in peace and security agenda (WPS), and accelerating the work on EVAWG. The basis for achievements in these areas are gender-responsive governance and budgeting, evidence-	XM-DAC-41146-KGZ_D_2.1	$0.00	$0.00 and data-based policy-making, and safe and open spaces for the interactions and collaboration between civil society and the state. The CO has introduced the harmonized approach to implementation of national commitments on GEWE, framed around 12 BPfA areas. It will help to streamline data collection, monitoring and analysis of the situation on gender equality, by also strengthening
