Outcome Description

Under the SN Outcome 2/UNSDCF Outcome 4, the CO will focus on SP Impact Area 1. However, the CO will also contribute to SP Impact Areas 3 and 4 through its interventions planned within this outcome. As distinctive requirements for achieving this outcome, the CO emphasizes the need to work towards the promotion of women leadership and participation in decisions-making at all levels (Women in Leadership), ensuring women voice and solution in peace and security agenda (WPS), and accelerating the work on EVAWG. The basis for achievements in these areas are gender-responsive governance and budgeting, evidence- and data-based policy-making, and safe and open spaces for the interactions and collaboration between civil society and the state. The CO has introduced the harmonized approach to implementation of national commitments on GEWE, framed around 12 BPfA areas. It will help to streamline data collection, monitoring and analysis of the situation on gender equality, by also strengthening

STRATEGIC NOTE OUTCOME PROGRESS NOTE

SHOWING DATA OF : 2023

SN Outcome 2/UNSDCF Outcome 4: By 2027, all people in the Kyrgyz Republic enjoy the benefits of fair and accountable democratic institutions that are free from corruption and apply innovative solutions that promote respect for human rights, and strengthen peace and cohesion.

The year 2023 was the first year of SN implementation and therefore the CO has made only some progress in achieving this Outcome. Within this Outcome area local partners accessed innovative tools to ensure gender responsive and human centric local development process for promoting peace, social cohesion and increasing local adaptation to climate insecurities. 9 target Local Self Governments (LSGs) of Batken and Leilek districts improved the efficiency of their LSG plans development process and strengthened interaction between communities and LSGs using the tools of "speed dating" and "design thinking". Further, LSG working groups used those innovative tools that allowed them to conduct a constructive dialogue with community residents, gather more ideas and discuss community concerns, producing the following results: 38 civil society organisations contributed to the development of the Vision to strengthen engagement between authorities and communities for joint action to promote Women, Peace and Security (WPS) agenda and jointly foster the community culture of peace, social cohesion and create a safe and prosperous society 149 LSG representatives (9 localities) increased their understanding of "How?" to engage community members in the local development planning (LDP) process and integration of gender and climate security priorities into the local plans and budgets 764 (495j/269m)- 617 community members and 147 LSG representatives participated in dialogues by applying innovative tool of ‘Speed Dating’ which enabled local partners to improve the quality of community engagement. 173 (130w/43m) - 142 community members and 31 members of LSG working groups from 9 LSGs used the Design Thinking method and jointly developed project ideas for inclusion in local development plans. 9 LSGs integrated 136 project ideas in their LDPs, taking into account priorities on gender equality, climate change adaptation and security.
