Economic migration is safe and regular for migrant women and girls

OUTCOME DETAILS

SDG alignment

Impact areas

 Women's economic empowerment

Organizational outputs

 Norms, laws, policies and institutions

 Financing for gender equality

 Access to services, goods and resources

Policy Marker

GENDER EQUALITY

Humanitarian Scope

No

Outcome Description

A lack of sustainable livelihood options, stemming from climate change, are important reasons for migration as are entrenched gender inequalities. Thus, it is critical that national migration policies recognize and address the specific needs, challenges and situations of vulnerability of all women in migration, as well as provide potential migrant women with viable alternatives to migration.

SHOWING DATA OF : 2022

Economic migration is safe and regular for migrant women and girls

ON track: At the normative level, UN Women supported a gender analysis of Niger's National Migration Policy in 2022 and subsequently initiated a revision of the policy's current action plan to make existing activities gender sensitive in collaboration with the Ministry of Interior. The dialogues at the workshops were based on the Policy Guide and practices developed by UN Women under Outcome 3 and provided participants with knowledge of the legal framework for migration at the national and international level, with a focus on the National Migration Policy and the Global Compact on Migration. Revising the current policy action plan to make existing activities gender sensitive in collaboration with the Ministry of Interior. The dialogues at the workshops were based on the Policy Guide and practices developed by UN Women under Outcome 3 and provided participants with knowledge of the legal framework for migration at the national and international level, with a focus on the National Migration Policy and the Global Compact on Migration. To retain and reduce irregular migration, UN Women reached more than 2,448,160 people, including 1,608,000 women, through a mass awareness campaign through the production of communication materials (audio and visual. In 2022, 664 femmes migrantes potentielles et réelles ont été sensibilisées à travers une campagne de sensibilisation et la paire éducation sur leurs droits et la migration sûre, ordonnée et régulére. Also 26 data actors, including 12 women, have acquired skills in the production and analysis of sex-disaggregated data and gender statistics on migration in collaboration with the National Institute of Statistics. And a survey instrument on the situation of women migrating from, to, through and back was developed, tested and enriched by UN Women in order to provide national actors with a reference tool on the subject. - (12) Twelve migrant educators have been trained and equipped with awareness-raising materials on the risks of irregular migration, their rights and responsibilities and are able to conduct pre-departure awareness-raising sessions for migrant women. They were able to sensitize 764 migrant women on their rights and safe, orderly and regular migration in the regions of Agadez, Tahoua, Niamey and Zinder. In addition, 450 migrant women were reached through mass sensitization caravans on safe migration and the promotion and protection of migrant women's rights. Three spots and a sketch in French and in the national language on the norms of safe migration were produced by UN Women in collaboration with an implementing partner, the
