UN System Function

Outcome Description

UN Women Sudan will continue the efforts to streamline recruitment processes to attract and retain talents, which has been a major challenge of the CO and has negatively impacted the delivery and perception of partners and key stakeholders. In this process the CO will sustain through the establishment of a more secure contractual modality the key positions and use the opportunity offered by the organization to make them benefit from training and other capacity building modalities. The CO will further enhance business efficiency monitoring tools, keep training partners in operations and financial procedures and carrying out regular oversight of implementing partners.
