STRATEGIC NOTE OUTCOME PROGRESS NOTE

SHOWING DATA OF : 2023

By 2027, the population, particularly women, children, adolescents, youth (boys and girls) and vulnerable groups, have increased, more inclusive and equitable access to quality basic social services, decent employment, social protection and protection from harmful practices - (Outcome 2. UNSDCF)

In Niamey, more than 2,818 people were directly affected by the awareness-raising campaign led by some 50 taximen on the fight against GBV in public places. This approach engaged through the strategy to fight against GBV in urban areas during the 16 days of activism 2023. Onu femmes strengthened 50 taximen ambassadors to Drive and prevent GBV experienced by women and girls taking public transport vehicles. o To better protect the rights of defenders of women's and girls' rights (DDF) in the exercise of their function, a campaign to popularize the educational booklet developed for this purpose was conducted and more than 500 booklets were distributed to them in all regions of the country and support for the reproduction and distribution of 400 copies of the reference document (catalog of GBV training modules) developed by the MPFPE to the various players. o 69 holistic center members and workers benefited from capacity-building, including 27 men and 42 women who were informed and equipped on standard operating procedures, case management and CRMVBG data in the Tahoua (30 participants, i.e. 15 men and 15 women) and Maradi (39 actors, including 12 men and 27 women) regions. UN Women has supported this initiative to strengthen the operation of these holistic care centers, and to provide them with qualified staff. Aussi, 98 femmes migrantes internationales ont été organisées, en comité de dénonciation des cas de VBG dénommés « chawara » qui constitue un cadre d’échange fiable ces migrantes de Niamey. Ceci a permis de référer et prendre en chargé et d’apporter d'un soutien psychologique à au moins 30 femmes, victimes de VBG. o In addition, 98 international migrant women have been organized into a GBV denunciation committee known as "chawara", which provides a reliable forum for these Niamey migrants. As a result, at least 30 women who had been the victims of GBV were referred, taken in charge and provided with psychological support. o 182 women sampled for a mapping exercise conducted by UN Women were referred to health centers to learn about their rights to protection against all forms of violence. These migrant women first explained the difficulties they face, and now have a better understanding of the mechanisms and mechanisms in place to combat GBV, particularly gender-based violence; These 182 international migrant women of Nigerian, Beninese, Togolese, Malian, Burkinabè and Sierra Leonean nationality took part in the conversations and were informed on the following issues: their rights to protection against all forms of violence, the typologies of gender-based violence and how to distinguish between them, and the availability of support services in the event of violence experienced or observed. In Niamey, more than 2,818 people were directly affected by the awareness-raising campaign led by some 50 taximen on the fight against GBV in public places.
