STRATEGIC NOTE OUTCOME PROGRESS NOTE

SHOWING DATA OF : 2023

Outcome 4.3 3 Women and girls in the highlands region in PNG affected by crisis, lead, participate in, and benefit from response and recovery, inclusive peace-building to reduce conflict and improve development (GYPI Highlands project goal)”

During the reporting period, women and girls were increasingly involved in community decision making meetings, mediation roles and service provision to survivors of violence. The services provided includes basic counselling services, shelter services and referrals. UN Women supported project enhanced the capacity of 126 women mediators to perform as peace mediators. A network of young women was established and empowered to advocate for their rights and improve the capacity of young people to actively participate in conflict prevention and social cohesion networks. UN Women further facilitated male advocates capacity to perform mediation role in the communities. The UN Women-supported network of PNG Women Group in Hela serves as a significant stakeholder in advancing women’s leadership, particularly targeting young girls, and encouraging their participation in leadership roles. The network comprises of 64 members from different parts of PNG, with each member having their own networks in their respective provinces. The network, a subsidiary of Global Women in Management, funded by Exxon Mobil, has empowered women at the village level, promoted their active engagement in various peace building and economic empowerment opportunities.
