UN Women strategically plans for and transforms its business model to deliver impact at scale, through agile and ethical leadership rooted in a continuous improvement culture.

Our Results Highlights

Global: Stronger Pivoting To Regions And Countries

 Global

In 2023, the second year of the 2022-2025 Strategic Plan, UN Women has continued its efforts towards pivoting towards regions and countries. As part of this, the organization has revitalized its business transformation support in offices, such as the efforts in Kenya, Bangladesh, Pakistan, Sudan, Egypt, and Afghanistan amongst others. While there is much more work to be done, 2023 saw an improvement in terms of increasing the overall sustainability of the portfolio of offices in the organization

Jordan: Investing For Future Impact

 Jordan

UN Women Jordan Country Office continuously invests its efforts to enhance its ability to deliver impact at scale, demonstrating agile and ethical leadership while fostering a culture of continuous improvement in the pursuit of Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment (GEWE). This is evident through its strong presence being a Tier 1 office. The Jordan Country Office during the Strategic Note period will ensure to continue adapting, learning and fostering innovative thinking.
