The initiatives within this outcome through interlinked outputs and activities display essential accomplishments in empowering women and young displaced individuals. UN Women support here facilitated advancements in governance skills among women leaders while also providing temporary employment opportunities in addition to delivering vital services to displaced women and girls. UN Women through this work supported longer results through training on entrepreneurship to allow women to sustainably support themselves financially. Projects and outputs under this outcome have achieved milestones in supporting vulnerable displaced women through trainings, capacity building, and support services.
