SHOWING DATA OF : 2022

Advancing business transformation

In 2022, UN Women co-led one Cooperation Framework results group, chaired the Gender Thematic Results Group, and the Operations Managers Team, while continuing to actively engage in the Joint Communication Group and various ad hoc task forces (e.g. on partnerships and resource mobilization, youth, disability, prevention of sexual exploitation and abuse). As a key member of the UN Country Team, the CO continued to deliver most of its programmatic work through the Joint Program modality, and to promote joint partnerships and funding approaches that at the core of UN reform, in addition to leveraging global UN human rights mechanisms for joint advocacy and normative support at the country level. Available core funds were leveraged for driving growth of the office. For example, minimal core funds (~USD 5,500) were used to expand the CO's fundraising efforts including preparing and submitting three project proposals: on gender and the media submitted to the UK Embassy; on safe cities, submitted to the UN Trust Fund for Human Security; and on prodoc for the second phase of the Joint Programme on Ending Violence Against Women, submitted to Sida. The UN Joint Programme Phase II was approved for funding, for a total of ~1.2M USD allocated to UN Women, which will function as leading agency for the second phase, resulting in a return on investment of more than 200-fold the amount invested in this exercise. In 2022, the country office has operated in a more climate conscious manner, embracing the hybrid modality by switching online the attendance to most of the programmatic and operational trainings, including Quantum related training sessions.
