Central African women and girls of all ages fully participate, lead ans engage in political institutions and processes

OUTCOME DETAILS

SDG alignment

Impact areas

Governance and participation in public life

Organizational outputs

Norms, laws, policies and institutions

Positive social norms

Access to services, goods and resources

Women's voice, leadership and agency

Outcome Description

The representation level of Central African women in decision-making is low and below international standards (30%). Only 22% of women are members of Government, 13% of women parliamentarians, 11% of women mayors. The women participation rate in CAR is all the more striking given that the constitution of March 2016 reaffirmed the principle of equality between men and women, and a law on Parity was passed in November 2016 with an evolutionary quota principle of 35% until 2026 and 50% beyond. This output includes 2 projects, including the "Projet Femmes arbres de paix" on PBF funding and the Governance and Women Political Participation Project, which is a response to the urgent need to act to reverse trends. They are a mechanism to support the Government in keeping with its national and international commitments to women. This output will enable CAR to take advantage of the benefits and opportunities of greater participation of women in formal peacebuilding mechanisms as evidenced by

STRATEGIC NOTE OUTCOME PROGRESS NOTE

SHOWING DATA OF : 2022

Central African women and girls of all ages fully participate, lead ans engage in political institutions and processes

The year 2022, a post-legislative and presidential election year, did not see any major changes in governance and the participation of women and girls in public life in the Central African Republic. Nevertheless, during 2022, many key initiatives were developed with the aim of achieving significant results in 2023. These include civic education campaigns, the establishment of official documents for the registration of women on the electoral list, advocacy for a gender-sensitive revision of the electoral code, advocacy for a more protective election security plan for women and minorities, training of women candidates, and the development of strategic partnerships for gender-sensitive legislative and budgeting processes. These actions aim to promote women's participation in the 2023 local elections
