STRATEGIC NOTE OUTCOME PROGRESS NOTE

SHOWING DATA OF : 2022

The judicial system improves the efficiency of its procedures to reduce the delays in processing judicial cases

UN Women has contributed to the decongestion of 18 prisons, improved the conditions of detainees by facilitating access to legal support for more than a 100 women and young girls in prolonged preventive detention; and the psychosocial well-being support of around 20 released women, thanks to a community oriented reintegration approach to manage Stigma and non-discrimination of released detainees. Key actors and stakeholders have improved their attitude towards detainees' rights and especially GVB survivors that they intervene more effectively, facilitating better handling of GBV cases in their daily operations. Regarding the legal aid, 254 of women in DPP who received legal aid including 44 cases in Habeas corpus, 66 in corrections, and 38 released thanks to the Peacebuilding Fund in reinforcing access to justice of vulnerable groups. This was made possible with the support of a local organization led by women - IMED. This experience indicates the importance of involving local women's organizations more in mediation tables and equipping them to be effective in the handling of legal cases. Multidimensional support services have been offered by partner organizations to GBV survivors including children under 18 years of age (73 Boys and 17 girls). Stigma and discrimination of ex-detainees have been dealt with by supporting them with education, vocational training, life skills training and income generating activities support. Some of these ex-detainees include children (103 boys and 17 girls) who are in conflict with the law have been placed in foster families.
