Effective normative, programmatic and coordination Products, Services and Processes

During the reporting period, UN Women invested time and efforts in standardised knowledge products (for example, the Gender analysis of Gender Responsive Budgeting integration in the national planning and budgeting system). In the field of coordination and collaboration with the UN Country Team for strengthening gender mainstreaming of UNCT programming and gender-sensitive monitoring and reporting. UN Women was focused on joint programmes aimed at achieving systemic and transformative change and moving away from small standalone projects. UN Women also strengthened its grant-making and partner-selection modalities to support collaboration and transformative change. The office works constantly on internal business processes' improvement to use scarce resources efficiently.
