High-end thematic advisory services and technical assistance to country teams are delivered for more effective programmes

During 2022, ACRO has been actively engaged in oversight and quality assurance to country teams to ensure delivery of more effective programmes. ACRO has prioritized having key standardized programme approaches in order to guarantee high-end thematic advisory services and technical assistance to country teams (please see document attached). For this purpose, ACRO has provided support to Country Offices through the following advisory services and technical assistance: Networking approach: Mutual support arrangements across the region on ad hoc basis and collaboration through operational and programmatic Task Teams and CoPs through Teams and other channels Innovations: Jointly identify new trends and possible innovations to scale up results using design thinking and behavioral science tools.
